

6516207927.txt

I enjoy listening to my XM radios. XM supplies me with entertainment and news variety, that I benefit from. I pay for the service and feel that they should be allowed to supply the services that the paying subscribers want. In other words let the people decide what they want from the XM radio service. I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Thank you.